

JOHN BURNS, LEADER.

Something About the Man Who is the Champion of the London Workmen.

An Engineer by Trade and a Revolutionary Socialist by Conviction.

A Resolute Man of Thirty, a Vigorous and Fearless Speaker and the Idol of His Class.

John Burns, who was at the head of the immense army of strikers in London, is a working engineer by trade and a revolutionary socialist by conviction. He is the self-appointed leader of the workingmen's party in London. For ten years he has been a stump orator of the pavement and the park. He has organized processions and marched at their head, waving the red flag in defiance of police regulations. He has contrived to get himself arrested several times for preaching the doctrine of dynamite and for creating disturbances, and has been in prison for inciting riot and public plunder. Now, since he has been elected to the county council, and has hitherto been a staid member of the council, he has been elected to the county council, and has hitherto been a staid member of the council.

Burns is a tall, spare-faced, muscular fellow of thirty, though he looks more, and was born in Battersea, London. He is about middle height, has coal-black hair, mustache and beard, keen black eyes, high cheek bones and an intelligent forehead. He looks what he is—a man of stern and resolute stuff. He is strong in will and physique, and has practical pugilism. He has a voice of enormous power, and standing on the plinth of the Nelson column can make it ring throughout Trafalgar square. He is a vigorous and fearless speaker, and long practice has taught him how to win the sympathy of ignorant masses of workmen. Little public notice was taken of Burns until 1885. Before that he addressed meetings all over the metropolis every Sunday. He planted himself on a stool at street corners and mounted a seat on Clapham common or in Hyde park and addressed the masses of the coming revolution. All the organized trades expressed contempt for him, and he was active in sowing discontent and causing dissension within their ranks. In 1885 Burns appeared as a socialist candidate for the representation of West Nottingham. He had only 42 towards his election expenses. Amongst those who sent him contributions was Mr. Andrew Carnegie, of Pittsburgh. He (Burns) was too advanced for the workers of Nottingham, and only polled 600 votes.

His next great exploit was when he caused the West End riots in February, 1886. There was a meeting in Trafalgar square—which was then the most famous rendezvous of tramps, costers and the men who are always waiting for something to turn up—and Burns was among the speakers. He made a speech of the fire and brimstone order, and drew several significant comparisons between the poverty and empty stomachs of his hearers and the richness of the West End and the bread in the baker's stores. The hungry men not only took the hint, but also the bread. They rushed along Pall Mall, Haymarket, smashing the windows, stealing bread and jewelry. The terrified inhabitants thought they were the vanguard of an anarchist invasion. The London police, as usual, came in at the end after $20,000 worth of property had been destroyed or stolen. Burns and three others were prosecuted, but the jury disagreed and they were let off. Some months after this Burns was arrested for offering to send Balfour, chief secretary of Ireland, to heaven by dynamite, but the police failed to get sufficient evidence against him.

When the conflict between the police and the radicals and socialists for the possession of Trafalgar square broke out on Sunday, November 13, 1887, Burns led the attack and received a sound drubbing from the police. He received three months imprisonment for "unlawful assembly." He has since been in trouble with the police. In December of last year he was elected for the London county council, as the member for Battersea, by a large majority. He has now become the parliamentary candidate for this district, and, as the electorate is the same, it is taken for granted that he will be elected. Burns has done useful work in the council. Before he was elected he worked in Hoe's London engineering factory for thirty years, during a week. He now devotes himself almost entirely to the work of the council and to propagating socialism. He is paid by the workmen of his ward. He has a magnetic influence on the workmen, and though a dangerous leader, he is not present using caution and is conscious of the responsibilities of his position. Burns is married and lives at Battersea—at Wickersley road, No. 56, to be exact—and occupies two rooms on the first floor of a neat brick house. His room is well furnished and he has a large collection of books, mainly about socialism and French revolution. For a workman his intelligence is far above the average, though his views are extreme. He is a leading member of the Social Democratic Federation, a free-thinker, a teetotaler and everything else that is regarded extreme or advanced.

Aker's English Remedy for coughs, and after taking it according to directions was completely cured. I therefore cheerfully recommend it.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Convalescent Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of women's ailments. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outcome of this experience. It is a valuable experience, thousands of testimonials received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect specific for women's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages. In particular, for overworked, "worn-out," run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing and strengthening tonic.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a soothing and strengthening nerve. "Favorite Prescription" is unqualified and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is a purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhoea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppression, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, female weakness, "nervousness," retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic constipation, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

"Favorite Prescription" when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative pills of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pills (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood impurities, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years. Large bottles (33 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.
